Hon. Allen W. Dulles, Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

Just a note to thank you again for suggesting Assistant Attorney General Tompkins as a speaker. His dynamic and forthright talk on communism and what is being done about it was exactly what we wanted from the Administration! The audience was literally thrilled and very responsive. The evening did much to ameliorate some tense feeling within the Club membership. My warm thanks to you for your interest and suggestion.

We never see you in New York - I haven't even had a glimpse of Nat this winter, which I regret - and hope all is well with you and yours.

With kind regards to Clover,

Cordially,

Mrs. David W. Peck
